

Gateway Unit 6 4B

Listening
You will hear five different people talking about the reasons why they became very successful. Choose from the list (A – H) the reason each person gives for their success. Use the letters only once. There are three extra letters which you do not need to use.
A natural ability B encouragement from others C careful planning D peer pressure E determination to improve F lack of competition G constant good luck H courage Speaker 1 Speaker 2 Speaker 3 Speaker 4 Speaker 5
Vocabulary
Translate the following words from English to German or the other way round. 1. eine S°p°u°l°m°a°s°c°h°i°n°e a 2. eine F°e°r°n°b°e°d°i°e°n°u°n°g a control 3. ein S°t°a°u°b°s°a°u°g°e°r a cleaner 4. v°e°r°a°n°t°w°v°o°r°t°l°i°c°h sein für to be 5. to a°c°q°u°i°r°e sth etw. 6. t°a°d°1°s°c h f 7. ein D°u°f°t a f 8. t°r°a°t°s°c°h°e°n to g 9. ein W°u°n°d°e°r a m 10. a w°r°i°s°t ein Grammar
Transform the sentences into the passive voice by completing the second sentence. Keep the same verb tense. Two sentences cannot be transformed into the passive voice. In this case write not possible into the gap.
Someone is interviewing Doctor Johnson at the moment. at the moment.
I hope they will choose me for the college football team. I hope for the college football team.

The windows are really dirty. No one has cleaned them for weeks.
The windows are really dirty. for weeks.
We were having a barbecue in the garden when the accident happened.
in the garden when the accident happened.
You should keep the flowers in a warm and sunny place.
in a warm and sunny place.
About thirty million people are watching this program right now.
about thirty million people right now.
The day before, they had warned her not to go near the river.
The day before, not to go near the river.
After they fired him, he became very depressed.
After , he became very depressed.
She often listens to music when she studies for exams.
when she studies for exams.
They had to cancel most events due to the new safety measures.
due to the new safety measures.
You cannot but the most important things that your shildren most
You cannot buy the most important things that your children need. The most important things that your children need .
The most important timings that you chicare ricea.
Somebody has put the saddle on the wrong horse.
on the wrong horse.
on the wrong horse.
on the wrong horse. Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence.
on the wrong horse.
on the wrong horse. Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it bit took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7 10. They seemed really happy. So I was quite surprised about their divorce.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it bit took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture 7 10. They seemed really happy. So I was quite surprised about their divorce.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time! was there, so! volunteered to go home early, since! can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feet of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture ? 10. They seemed really happy. So! was quite surprised about their divorce.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time I was there, so I volunteered to go home early, since I can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her for the well-being and comfort of one of her own children. 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feel of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture habout their divorce.
Complete the sentences below with the verbs in italics in the correct form. Add any other words (such as prepositions) that are necessary to form a complete sentence. make, have, be, see, fix, improve, hear, take, build, deal 1. She was a penniless artist who wasn't even interested a real job. 2. Work was slow, I'd had maybe three customers the whole time! was there, so! volunteered to go home early, since! can't stand bored. 3. Apathetic people are among the most difficult with. As every salesperson knows, it is far easier to overcome objections than it is to handle a customer who is passive and indifferent. 4. I left my car there and had it It took a few days, so they lent us a car. 5. No sacrifice was too great for her 6. The children are so excited about their cousin Lynn again. They have missed her and so have the rest of us. 7. Dad designed the layout of the house himself and had it by contractors under his supervision, centrally located only a block and a half from the school my sister and I attended. 8. Fabric finishers are used the durability, appearance, and feet of a material. 9. There's a photographer over here. Why don't we have our picture ? 10. They seemed really happy. So! was quite surprised about their divorce.

39
40
41
42
	1 verbleibende Versuche
	Absenden